Exalted Ruler's Message

Hello my dear fellow members and family,

It used to be that the television stations would play the National Anthem and display our countries flag and sign off after mid-night. NO MORE! I've come back from the Grand Lodge Convention in New Orleans with my heart full of joy to see how proud we are to be an ELK. Like our GER John D. Amen says, "We need to elevate our voice, and ourselves and be proud to be an Elk!" We still honor our flag and defend and protect its values. We are one Nation under God. I'm so proud that we still open our meetings with God's blessing. We are proud to display our colors, honor our flag, and sing our National Anthem that's what Elks are about to help the less fortunate, our youth to help them stay away from temptation of substance abuse and to support our veteran's. This is why I joined the Elks to help others and not for what I can gain for myself.

"We are people of passion, and that passion made visible continues to drive us to even greater heights in service..." - PGER Miller Pickering "We are people of passion" the Grand Lodge sessions were very informative and I returned with a great inspiration to help those in need and we really need to bring back some of our charitable programs that we have put aside some time ago. New Orleans was fun and I met so many great members and families from lodges all over the country. I have returned to our lodge thinking of all the great changes we need to do around and also planning new events we will put together for you my dear members, families and guest. I would like to start by Thanking our manager Becky for the wonderful cook she hires, also a big thanks to the members who have been cooking on the Monday nights "No Frills" dinners for the month of July.. Independence Day Celebration was very spectacular, also our first monthly Birthday Bash was a great success, and we promise to continue and be better each month. FAMILY FUN NIGHT was dedicated to our Brother Mr. Steve Martin and it was excellent.

A person's success can be measured by the tangible things in life like houses, money, cars etc. Sometimes perception of worth, prestige, admiration can be linked to these very same things. Merriam-Webster's dictionary defines success: The fact of getting or achieving wealth, respect, or fame. We strive so hard as humans to achieve these items that we may lose focus on the non-tangibles. What are these non-tangibles? What are these success items that we can't touch or see? Success can also be measured by happiness and becoming the best person you can be. What this means simply is that, if you want to have a great life, you must continually strive to become a good person. Any change from this course will lead you to lower levels of happiness and disappointment. Every time you act consistently with the highest virtues that you know, you feel happy and physically powerful inside, your self-confidence and self-esteem go up and you become more effective in your relationships and in your work. Virtue is its own reward. It pays for itself in the inner feeling of pleasure and contentment you have when you live consistent with the best you know. Character will be the greatest success factor. If you want to make changes your surroundings, you must go to work and change your subconscious mind, your world of values, beliefs, and inner convictions so that the person you are inside is exactly the mental equivalent of the life you want to enjoy on the outside. William Shakespeare wrote, "And this above all, to thine own self be true. Then, it must follow as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man." You must always be consistently true to yourself. This means being true to the very best that is in you. Further means that you always do your very best in every situation. Your perception to others or reputation is your greatest asset. Be successful, be the best you can be and the admiration you will receive will carry forth to others. Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity Titus 2:7

Hello Sisters and Brothers,
Here we are in the heat of summer, and I hope everyone is staying nice and cool! Remember that the Lodge is cool for your comfort. Take advantage of it and come in for dinner and a drink. Bring your favorite neighbor too!
Saturdays are in full swing, and Sandy is doing a great job with the Birthday Bash line-ups! I was up north visiting my son, but I heard our first birthday bash for the month of July was a lot of fun! Way to go Sandy! Check the newsletter for the next three months' entertainment lineup. I hope to see you Saturday night!
The month of August looks to be another busy month! As new members have stepped forward to steer head new or traditional events here at the lodge, let's make sure we support them in their efforts. Please be fair to them and give them a chance to perform their duties. Many new members are coming in with some great ideas to keep this lodge active. They are donating much of their time to our lodge. Let's show our appreciation.
Let's remember that Justice means to be fair with a smile and not with a frown. When we show justice, we show it through our actions by being kind, fair and righteous to one another. I know this can come easy to many and with God's help and guidance, it's possible for all. We need to choose to love one another as we continue to make this the best lodge around! And remember, let's continue to have fun!

Your Esteem Loyal Knight,
Julie Gomez

News and notes from the chair of Brotherly Love. Football season is upon us- yes, the doldrums of summer are winding down. School will be starting soon, and with it comes America's passion - football: whether it is high school, college, or pro we cannot seem to get enough! So it begs the question, "Are you ready for some football?"

In August we will be having our second "Birthday Bash" night. The date is Saturday the 30th from 7:30-11:30. The band playing that night is Tease. July's "bash" was awesome, and what a nice way to honor our members born in July. Please come celebrate August birthday babies! Do not forget your dancing shoes! A special thanks goes out to Sandie Sesanto for her wonderful efforts in putting together these function!

Karaoke Wednesday is proving to be a big hit at the lodge. It is a fun time for fellowship, entertainment, and a few laughs. We do have some talented people singing, but there is always a need for more! Why not you! Also that night we have our Jack of Spades drawing at 8:00. Keith Kelly is doing a fantastic job running the fundraiser! The prize money is well over 1,200 dollars! Wouldn't that be nice to hit?!

Growing up I was schooled on the importance of the four pillars of life: Faith, Family, Finance, and Fun. Faith, the belief that God is there for us. We just need to tap into his system to find peace. "Let go let God." Family, helped nurture our faith. We were united in a common cause of being the best we could for each other. Finance, what career path were you going to follow to support your family, and make a difference with those you came in contact with. Fun, life should be enjoyable experience. I was told if one has the first three covered, the fourth comes along for the ride!

I will leave you with a quote attributed to Ben Franklin, "Beer is proof that God loves us and wants us to enjoy life." This seems very apropos with football season just around the corner. Have a good August! Be well!

Fraternally,

Tim Conklin

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

Wow here it is August already and we are always busy with home projects Lodge activities and fun times. Much thanks also to those who have been helping with all the work items and also enjoying our fun times.

Thank you Keith Kelley for stepping in and helping with the weed pulling and mulch spreading in our flower and hedge planting areas. [Actually, I think that I am the one stepping up to help him!]

Also in the garden and sprinkler area, Louis Garcia is in the process of doing the sprinkler repairs and also some gardening maintenance. There were a few bad sprinklers and some dead greenery that we are working on. Thank you Louis.

And as always a thanks to Roy Kneale for you name it projects, Chimes, Bingo equipment, besides working with bingo every week. Please let us know about other members we should recognize for their efforts in our Lodge.

We would like to thank Tony Nobli for a great effort in setting up our new Point of Sales system, this has been quite a learning process for all involved.

This is that time of the year when vacations and other activities take us away; it is also a time when expenses seem to be higher. In the past few months we have replaced or repaired quite a few things in our Lodge. Our food expenses have also gone up and wages have increased. Together we will work through these times.

We are very thankful for our lease outs and extra Lodge activities during these next few months.

Jerry Warren— BOT

Dear Members,

Our Lodge will be hosting a Barbeque on August 31, 2014 in appreciation and to support our Troops and their families for all they have given to us. You often hear people express their gratitude for our nations service men and women and their families but many are not sure how to show their support. But with this Barbeque there is something actually tangible you can do right now that will directly help those who need it most; Troops, Sailors, Marines, Airmen and their families.

As you know the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has made a pledge, "That as long as there are Veterans they will never be forgotten". Many Elks are Veterans as our Order is distinctively American, linking our destiny with our countries. What better way to show pride and commitment to our Nation than to care for its service men and women.

All money raised through this barbeque will go directly to USO Programs that support deployed Troops, Military Families, wounded, ill and injured and their caregivers and families of the fallen.

We are working to raise as much as we can with your help. We can do it and at the same time share good food and times with friends and family for we are fortunate to be able to through others sacrifices.

Date: August 31, 2014 Time: 1:00 PM to 6:00 PM

Place: West Covina Elks Lodge #1996

Menu: Tri-Tip sandwich, Potato Salad and Baked Beans $10.00
